Form
Sri Deba Ranjan Mohanty,
Joint Inspector General of Registration.

To
The District Registrar, Nayagarh

Sub: Clarification regarding refund of deposited challan money.

Ref: Your Letter No.119/Regn., dated 24.06.2026.

Sir,

With reference to your letter on the subject cited above, I am directed to say that, since the document was never been presented for registration, the registration fee was not paid by any presenter. Had the document been presented for registration, the registration fee would have been paid by the presenter, and any refund, if admissible, would have been due to the presenter.

Further, the enclosed copy of the Treasury Challan reveals that the registration fee was deposited on behalf of Smt. Renubala Prusty, the deceased executant of the Sale Deed. Therefore, the refund of the deposited challan amount, if admissible under the relevant rules, shall be payable to the legal heirs of late Smt. Renubala Prusty.

This is for your information and necessary action.

Yours faithfully,
